

EDITORIAL

In 2013, when it was firstly released, Astra Salvensis was an initiative of a few young researchers that wanted to create a special journal. Later, little by little, became a notorious journal that not published only investigations of local history<sup>1</sup> and historiography<sup>2</sup>, but also theological<sup>3</sup>, published there an idea regarding historiography, theology, politics and education and later spoke about it or even developed it in a book<sup>8</sup>.

Now, I am extremely glad to host, as the editor in chief, its 15th number. Noticing its editorial and scientific committee, its authors, indexation and quotations and impact, I would proudly say that Astra Salvensis has become a relevant journal not only for the Romanian area, but also for the international space. I am proud and I can only promise to our reader that this number will not disappoint his or her expectation. Moreover, with any number, we will try to develop it, to improve our skills and to find actual topics that would surely feed with the contemporary concerns. Vivat, crescat, floreat, ASTRA!
